

It is my pleasure to recommend Jonathan (Yonni) Dror as an exceptional music teacher. I took online flute lessons with Yonni for over two years, and I found him to be patient, inspiring and knowledgeable. As one of the top studio and concert musicians in Israel, he had a busy schedule, but he always made our lessons a priority. His musical experience and flexibility are unmatched, and he would be a wonderful choice as a teacher of flute, clarinet or saxophone. In addition, he is a master of wind instruments of the Middle East including the Turkish and Arabic nay, duduk, and kawala. I am confident that Yonni would be a welcome addition to your platform and your students will enjoy having him as a teacher and mentor. Highly recommended!
