Recommendation

Ms. Verena Bachinger taught German language courses in Ben Gurion University's Center for Austrian and German Studies during the summer semester of 2014. She taught two beginners courses and one intermediate German course. I visited her classes to observe her teaching. During my visit she displayed an impressive aptitude for teaching students at multiple levels.

Despite teaching for the first time in a university setting, Ms. Bachinger came to us with a solid grasp of how to organize a course and conduct a classroom. She succeeded in establishing a good rapport with her students and communicating with them in a positive manner. This allowed her to challenge them and keep them engaged.

I feel confident in recommending Ms. Bachinger for any teaching position. In addition to her pedagogical skills, she exhibits a strong sense of dedication. She can be counted on to meet her responsibilities and always come prepared to teach.

If I can be of further assistance, do not hesitate to contact me.
