I've been taking voice lessons with Liz for about two years and couldn't be happier with how far I've come as a singer! Liz is patient, engaging and very adept at refining weaknesses in my voice.

When I first started as a complete novice, she focused on stabilizing my breathing and air control. As I improved, she helped me with vowel tones, consonant placements and extending my range in both directions. I remember being super excited the first day I realized I had a stable vibrato!

We've worked on a very large range of repertoire ranging from Bach cantatas to Hamilton musical. Liz also often recommends relevant auditions in musicals/operas and worked with me to prepare my audition pieces. Since last year, I've performed in my first musical and G&S operetta!

I highly recommend Liz for anyone looking to become a singer, improve their voice and/or just want to experience what it's like to resonate your body with a properly controlled voice!

I've been singing now for just over 20 years, working with different instructors from my high school chorus teachers, to my voice instructor in college to vocal lessons by CD. NONE have been able to get the best out of me like Liz has. Her understanding of how different voices work is the greatest strength every vocal instructor should strive for. I feel and hear a vast improvement in how my voice sounded before her and after her. So to anyone who's looking for an instructor who works with YOU and not someone who teaches the same lessons to everyone they work with, Liz Patterson is the one you want to work with!

Elizabeth has been fantastic at not only providing real time feedback/corrections, but also extremely helpful with clear guidance on how to practice with proper technique. The lesson format is very relaxed and it always feels like progress has been made. She's an absolute joy to work with and I would highly recommend her to anyone seeking a vocal coach!

I have been out of vocal training for ten years and I couldn't have found a better vocal coach to get back in the game! She is so encouraging and knows exactly what she's doing! Would highly recommend!

Liz is the best!! I've had some vocal lessons before and Liz is definitively the best instructor I've ever had. She works with my voice and really focuses on the fundamentals, which helps me get rid of the bad habits that I've built over the years of singing in the wrong way. Once the fundamentals are right, it becomes so much easier to hit the notes with clarity and stability. I love how she spends time to understand my own strengths and weaknesses, and not just trying to make me sing like everyone else. She picks the songs that work for my voice, are interesting and challenging. I love taking Liz's classes!

I have made a lot of progress since I started studying with Liz. She communicates clearly about the area that needs improvement; and also introduces me to a variety of vocalise and practice technique. Liz is very supportive and encouraging. I highly recommend Liz a singing instructor.

Elizabeth is patient, kind, and does an excellent job coming up with analogies and exercises for her students. Thanks to her, I have gained a great deal of confidence as a singer. Her teaching style is always constructive, but never critical or judgmental. She approached every class with a positive attitude and taught me how to use my skillset to improve as a singer. She even taught me a great deal about the piano and how to play as I sing. Moreover, she always asked about my day, my life, and how I was doing, and she always managed to put a smile on my face by the end of the lesson. She is a great teacher, person, and mentor that I couldn't recommend more highly.
