

Musical Journey & Tutoring Expertise of Erioluwa Adeola

Education:

Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering

Musical Training and Experience:

1. Multi-instrumentalist: Proficient in a variety of instruments, including piano, drums, flute, clarinet, guitar, and saxophone, providing a broad understanding of musical structures and relationships.
2. Saxophonist since 2015: Dedicated saxophone player with years of daily practice and performance experience.
3. Versatile Musical Styles: Experience in playing a wide range of musical genres including pop, traditional African, blues, makossa, jazz, Ibiza, and more, allowing for a versatile and adaptable teaching approach.
4. Performance Experience: Extensive performance history at a variety of venues and events, including weddings, pubs, clubs, and private events, providing real-world insights to share with students.

Teaching Philosophy and Approach:

1. Personalized Lessons: Emphasizes tailoring lessons to each student's individual needs and interests, with a focus on active participation and engagement.
2. Holistic Learning Experience: Teaches not just techniques and theory, but also performance skills and improvisation, providing a well-rounded musical education.
3. Communication through Music: Believes that music is a powerful means of communication and aims to help students connect with and express deep emotions through their playing.